no 538

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a ledger or account book. The text is written on lined paper and includes several entries, some of which are numbered 1 through 7. The entries appear to be organized into columns, possibly representing different categories or accounts. The handwriting is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and the presence of a large watermark.

PURO PAKUALAMAN

Handwritten signature or name at the bottom right of the page, possibly "Bacardi" or similar, with some illegible text below it.
